Interagency Committee Representation

TO : All Division Chiefs, ORR

DATE: 1 October 1951

FROM : Assistant Director of Research and Reports

SUBJECT: Committee Membership

1. In order to assist the work of CIA members of interagency committees, expedite security clearances, and at the same time comply with pertinent security regulations of this Agency, it is essential that Requirements and Control Division maintain in its files information about interagency committees on which ORR has representation.
2. Attached herewith is a list of the interagency committees on which ORR had representation as of 20 March 1951.
3. You are requested to bring this list up to date in so far as your division is concerned, to append the names of your representatives on each committee and the names of other members, together with the agency each represents. Indicate also what agency is sponsoring the committee.
4. As soon as this list has been completed, consultations will be held with the ORR personnel involved to ascertain how each committee functions and the tempo of personnel change.
5. This information should be in the hands of the Chief, Requirements and Control Division by the close of business, 19 October 1951.
